

FOREWORD

This double issue of Acta Linguistica Hungarica contains a selection of the papers presented at SinFonIJA 4, a conference held at the Research Institute for Linguistics of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences on September 1–3, 2011. SinFonIJA is a conference series on formal linguistics organized each year by a different institution in Central and South East Europe. The first SinFonIJA meeting held in Nova Gorica in 2008 was followed by a Sarajevo conference in 2009, and a Novi Sad meeting in 2010. At the Budapest conference, 26 papers (five of them invited talks) and 14 posters were presented. Of the 15 papers submitted for publication, 10 have been accepted for the present issue.
