

PROFESSORS OF THE FACULTY OF CHEMICAL ENGINEERING

(Compiled by F. SZABADVÁRY)

LATE PROFESSORS OF THE FACULTY

Károly Nendtvich
(1811—1892)

Physician, first professor of chemistry (1847–1882), member of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences (1845), rector of the Technical University 1873/74.

Vince Wartha
(1844–1914)

Chemist, professor of mineralogy (1867), professor of chemical technology 1870–1912, member (1873), vice-president (1908) of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences, rector of the Technical University 1897/98, 1907–1910.

Lajos Ilosvay
(1851–1936)

Pharmacist and chemist, professor of chemistry (1882–1934), member (1891), vice-president (1916) of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences, state secretary of education (1914–1917), rector of the Technical University 1900–1903.

Imre Szarvasy
(1872–1942)

Chemical engineer, professor of electrochemistry (1905–1942), member of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences (1910), rector of the Technical University 1925–1927.

Elek 'Sigmund
(1873–1939)

Chemical engineer, professor of agricultural chemical technology (1910), member of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences (1915), director of the State Chemical Research Institute (1926–1934).

Ignác Pfeifer
(1867–1941)

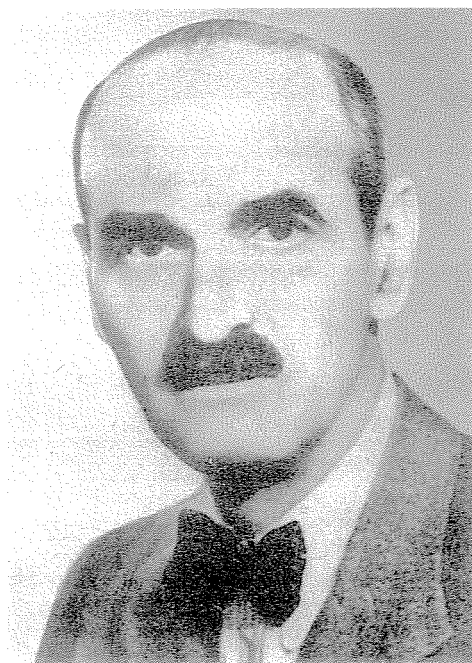

Chemical engineer, professor of chemical technology (1912–1922), later research director of the Tungstram Ltd.

Géza Zemplén
(1883–1956)

Chemist, professor of organic chemistry (1913), member of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences (1923) and of the Academia Caesarea Leopoldina, Corvin-wreath (1931) and Kossuth Prize (1948) winner.

László Putnoky
(1888–1948)

Chemical engineer, professor of inorganic chemistry (1921–1947).

Mihály Vuk
(1875–1952)

Chemical engineer, professor of food chemistry (1921–1948).

József Varga
(1891–1956)

Chemical engineer, professor of chemical technology (1923), member of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences (1932), Corvinwreath (1942), Kossuth Prize winner (1950, 1952), minister of industry (1939–1943), director of the High Pressure Research Institute (1951), professor of petroleum and coal technology, Chem. University
Veszprém (1952).

Ármin Strausz
(1866–1939)

Physicist, professor of physical chemistry (1926–1936).

Jenő Plank
(1890–1974)

Chemical engineer, professor of general chemistry (1936–1949), member of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences (1945).

Géza Binder-Kotrba
(1888–1945)

Chemical engineer, professor of agricultural chemical technology (1940).

István Náray-Szabó
(1899–1972)

Chemical engineer, professor of physical chemistry (1938–1947), senior research scientist in the Central Chemical Research Institute (1956–1969).

Zoltán Csűrös
(1901–1979)

Chemical engineer, professor of textile chemistry (1938–1946), professor of organic chemical technology (1946–1971), member of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences (1946), rector of the Technical University 1946–1949, 1957–1961, Kossuth Prize winner (1953), honorary doctor of the Technical University (1975).

Béla Lányi
(1894–1964)

Chemical engineer, professor of electrochemistry (1942–1957).

János Proszk
(1892–1968)

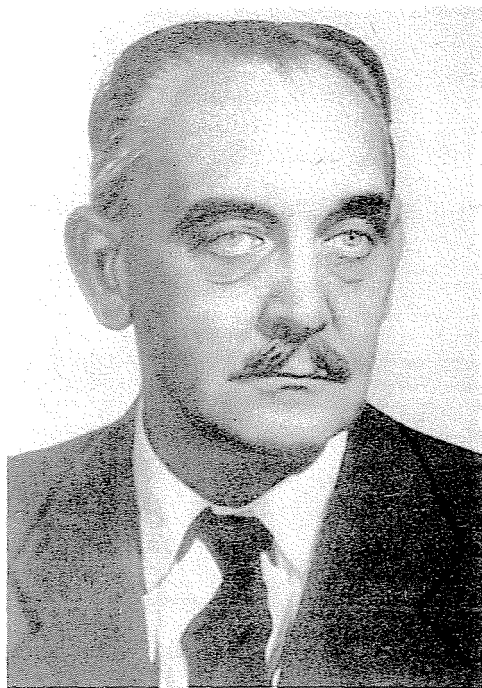

Chemist, professor of chemistry at the College of Mining (1924–1948), professor of inorganic chemistry (1948–1964), member of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences (1956), Kossuth Prize winner (1953).

György Alexits
(1899–1978)

Mathematician, professor of mathematics (1948–1967), member (1948), general secretary (1949/50) of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Kossuth Prize winner (1951), State prize winner (1970).

Zoltán Sándor
(1900–1982)

Chemical engineer, professor of agricultural chemical technology (1948–1952).

László Erdey
(1910–1970)

Chemist, professor of general and analytical chemistry (1949), member of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences (1951), secretary of its Chemistry Section (1951–1959), Kossuth Prize winner (1951, 1958).

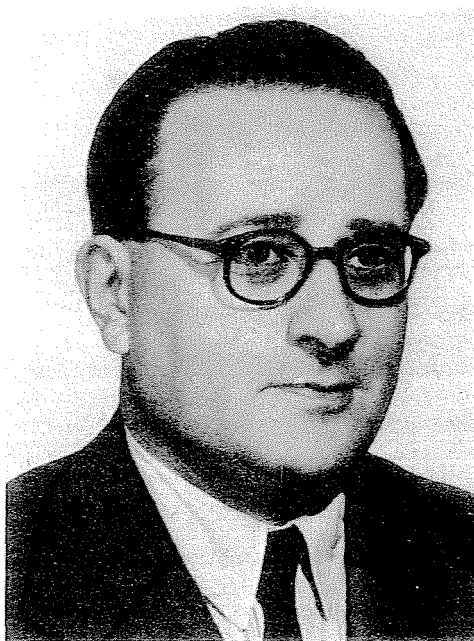

Rudolf Balló
(1884–1969)

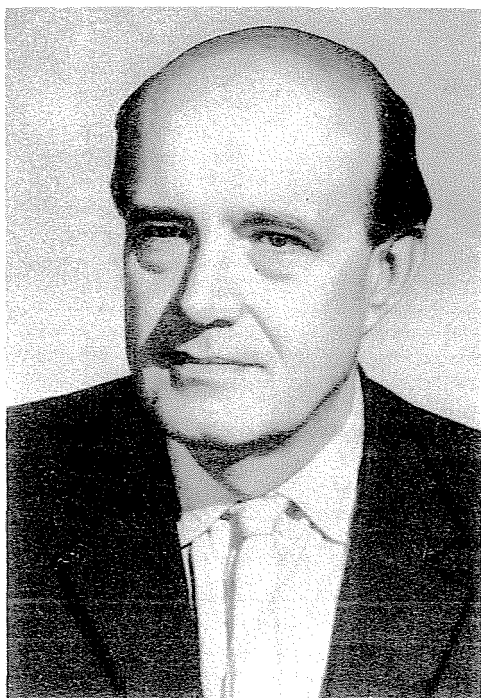

Chemist, professor of plastic industries (1952–1960).

Dénes Beke
(1911–1962)

Chemical engineer, professor of organic chemistry (1950), head of the department (1956), Kossuth Prize winner (1949).

Károly Tettamanti
(1912–1983)

Chemical engineer, professor of unit operations (1955–1977), director of the Research Institute for Organic Chemical Industry (1952–1961), Kossuth Prize winner (1962).

Mór Korach
(1888–1975)

Chemical engineer, professor of chemistry at the University of Bologna (1924–1938), director of the Central Building Material Research Institute Budapest (1953–1957), professor of chemical and agricultural machinery (1956–1957), professor of chemical technology (1957–1963), director of the Research Institute of Technical Chemistry of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences (1960–1968), member of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences (1956), Kossuth Prize winner (1958), honorary doctor of the Technical University (1967).

László Vajta
(1920–1979)

Chemical engineer, professor (1963–1979), head of the Department for Chemical Technology (1963–1967) Kossuth Prize winner (1957), member of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences (1973), vice-president of its Chemistry Section (1976).

Péter Földes
(1930–1982)

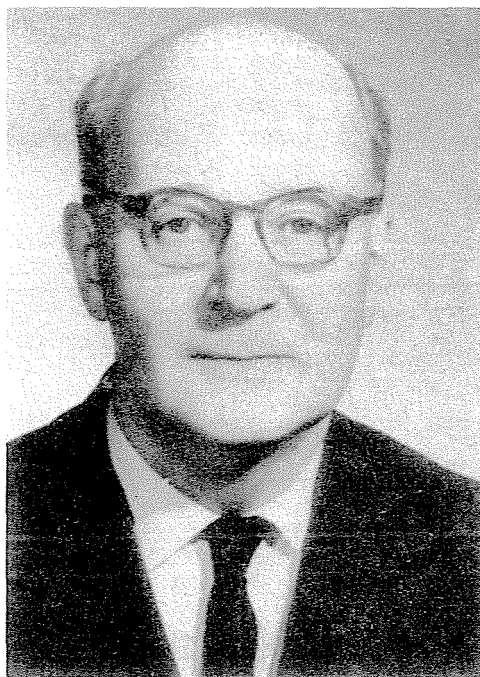

Chemical engineer, professor (1969) and head (1977) of the Department of Unit Operations, member of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences (1982).

PROFESSORS EMERITI

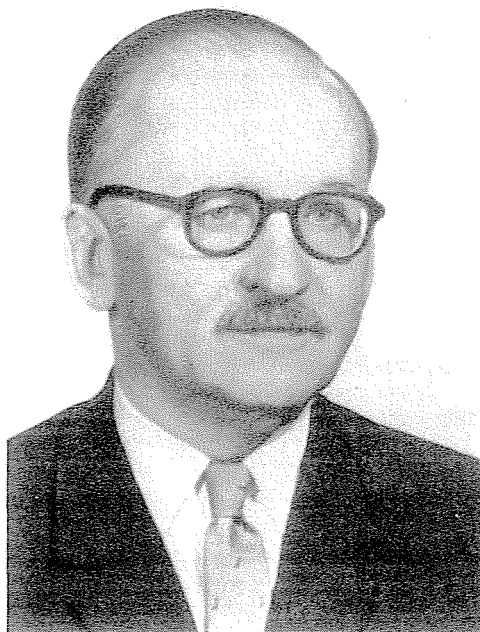

Géza Schay

Chemist, (b. 1900), professor of physical chemistry (1949–1965), member of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences (1946), director of the Rubber Research Laboratory (1949–1955), director of the Central Research Institute for Chemistry of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences (1954–1970); Kossuth Prize winner (1952, 1956), honorary doctor of the Technical University (1982).

László Telegdy-Kováts

Chemical engineer, (b. 1902), professor of food chemistry (1950–1972).

PROFESSORS OF THE FACULTY OF CHEMICAL ENGINEERING

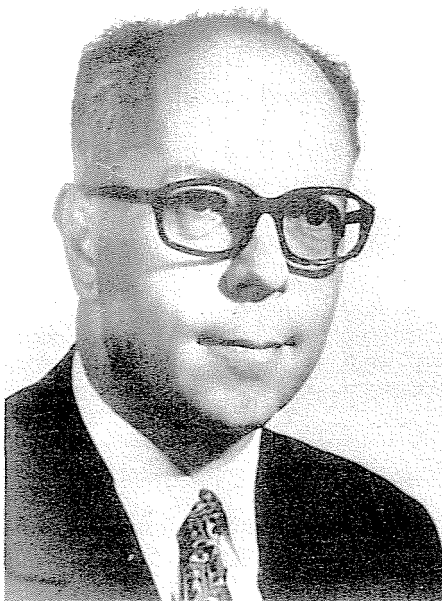

Lajos Fodor

Chemical engineer, professor (1983) and head (1975) of the Department of Agricultural Chemical Technology, D.Sc., deputy rector of the Technical University (1982).

Gábor Földiák

Chemical engineer, professor (1977) of the Department of Chemical Technology, D.Sc., director of the Institute of Graduate Studies of the Technical University (1976–1983), deputy minister of culture and education (1983).

Sándor Gál

Chemical engineer, professor (1983) of the Department of General and Analytical Chemistry, D.Sc., deputy dean (1981).

Gyula Hardy

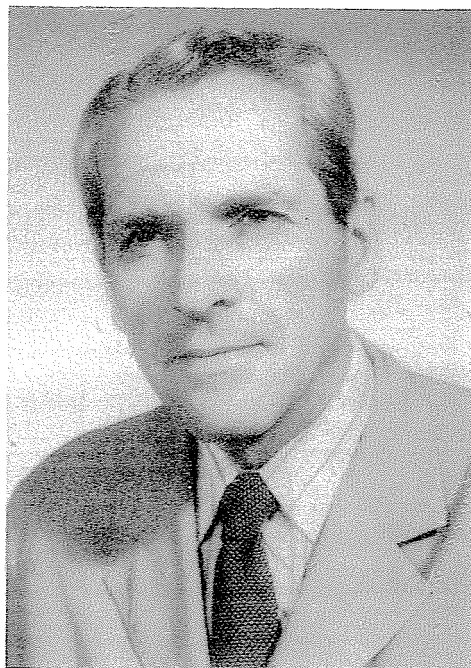

Chemical engineer, professor (1965) and head (1959–1980) of the Department of Plastics and Rubber, member of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences (1976), director of the Plastic Research Institute (1957).

János Holló

Chemical engineer, professor (1956) and head (1952–1974) of the Department of Agricultural Chemical Technology, member of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences (1967), director of the Central Research Institute for Chemistry of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences (1972), State prize winner (1975).

György Korányi

Chemical engineer, professor (1972) of the Department of Applied Chemistry, D.Sc.

Dezsó Králik

Mathematician, professor (1969) and head (1967) of the Department of Mathematics, C.Sc.

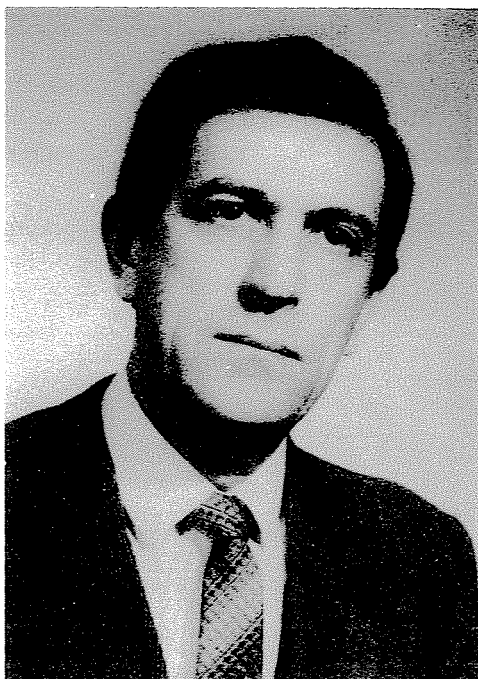

László Láng

Chemist and physicist, professor (1978) of physics, D.Sc.

Radomir Lásztity

Chemical engineer, professor (1969) and head (1972) of the Department of Biochemistry and Food Chemistry, D.Sc.

Károly Lempert

Chemist, professor (1964) and head (1962–1979) of the Department of Organic Chemistry, member of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences (1970).

József Manczinger

Chemical engineer, assoc. professor (1970) and head (1982) of the Department of Chemical Unit Operations, C.Sc.

Tibor Meisel

Chemical engineer, professor (1982) of the Department of General and Analytical Chemistry D.Sc.

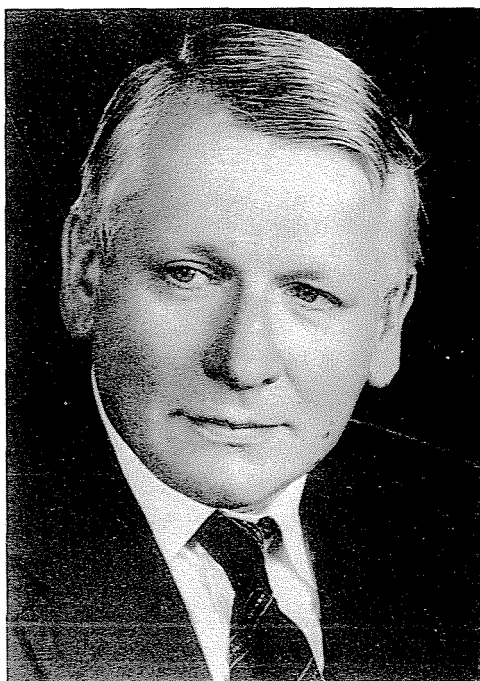

Miklós Moser

Chemical engineer, professor (1978) of the Department of Chemical Technology, D.Sc.

József Nagy

Chemical engineer, assoc. professor (1960) and head (1963) of the Department of Inorganic Chemistry, C.Sc., Kossuth Prize winner (1953).

Lajos György Nagy

Chemical engineer, professor (1972) and head (1975) of the Department of Applied Chemistry D.Sc., dean of the Faculty (1982).

József Petró

Chemical engineer, professor (1980) of the Department of Organic Chemical Technology, D.Sc.

Károly Polinszky

Chemical engineer, professor (1954–1963) and head of the Department of Chemical Technology, Chemical University Veszprém, professor (1980) of the Department of Chemical Technology, director of the Research Institute of Heavy Chemical Industry (1949–1952), Kossuth Prize winner (1961), member (1964) and vice-president (1980) of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences, deputy minister of education (1963–1974), director of the Research Institute for Technical Chemistry of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences (1966–1974), minister of education (1974–1980), rector of the Technical University (1981–).

Ernő Pungor

Chemist, professor and head (1962–1970) of the Department of Analytical Chemistry, Chemical University Veszprém, professor and head (1970) of the Department of General and Analytical Chemistry, member of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences (1967), State Prize winner (1973).

István Rusznák

Chemist, professor (1969) and head (1971) of the Department of Organic Chemical Technology, D.Sc., Kossuth Prize winner (1954).

Ferenc Szabadváry

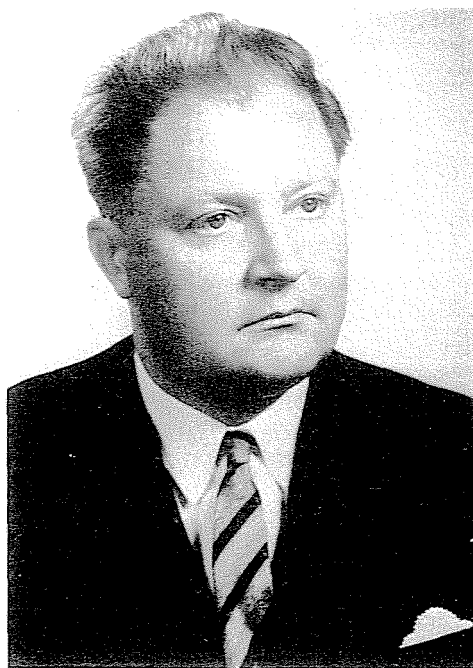

Chemical engineer, professor (1972) of the Department of General and Analytical Chemistry, D.Sc., editor of the Periodica Polytechnica (1971), general director of the National Museum for Science and Technology (1973).

Csaba Szántay

Chemical engineer, professor (1968) and head (1979) of the Department of Organic Chemistry, member of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences (1970), State Prize winner (1975).

Imre Szabényi

Chemical engineer, professor (1980) and head (1967) of the Department of Chemical Technology, D.Sc.

László Tóke

Chemical engineer, professor (1975) of the Department of Organic Chemistry, Department of Organic Chemical Technology (1976), D.Sc., State Prize winner (1975).

József Varga

Chemical engineer, assoc. professor (1971) and head (1980) of the Department of Plastics and Rubber, C.Sc., deputy dean (1982).

György Varsányi

Chemist, professor (1960)
and head (1965) of the Department of Physical Chemistry, D.Sc.

Attila Verba

Mechanical engineer, assoc.
prof. (1967) and head (1974) of the Department of Mechanical Eng.
for the Chemical Industry, C.Sc.
